How to Ask for a Reasonable Accommodation in Employment

Are you an employee who wants to learn how to request an accommodation from their employer?

This video will help explain the process of requesting a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act in your workplace. If you have any questions about reasonable accommodations, or would like to speak with our Short Term Assistance Team, call 800-662-9080, or fill out our online contact form at www.disabilitylawcenter.org.
The Disability Law Center (DLC) is a private, non-profit organization, designated by the governor as Utah's Protection and Advocacy agency. The DLC believes in a society where abilities, rather than disabilities, are recognized; all people have an equal opportunity to participate; and where all people are treated with equity, dignity, and respect. We work toward our vision by enforcing and advancing the legal rights, choices, and opportunities of Utahns with disabilities. DLC services are available free of charge statewide, regardless of income, legal status, language, or place of residence.

If you have further questions, please contact us. Even though our focus is on cases that can help as many people as possible - because time and resources are limited - we at least offer information and/or referral options to everyone who contacts us. Materials are also available in alternative formats such as audio, large-print, Braille and Spanish. Call (800) 662-9080 or apply for help online, and our staff will contact you within 1-3 business days.
